"A Comedy About a Bank Robbery" Dinner Theatre

ACTS' newest Dinner Theater production, "A Comedy About a Bank Robbery", takes to the stage in June – a wildly entertaining, somewhat bawdy, completely hysterical comedy about a group of thieves trying to steal a precious diamond – which apparently EVERYONE wants to steal. The play is filled with action and comedy – a truly slapstick and fun adventure involving thieves, bankers, more thieves, and...thieves? They seem to be everywhere! Grab some good friends who love to laugh and join us in June!

June 6, 7*, 8*, 13, 14*, 15* at 7pm

June 9 at 2pm

*Dinner Shows 6pm seating

Back by Popular Demand - BINGO!

By Dana Estrada

What makes candy bar Bingo even better? The luck of the Irish! On March 2nd, ACTS hosted its second candy bar bingo night but this time with some St. Patrick's Day flair! Many of our sixty participants walked away bingo winners or won amazingly fun raffle baskets. Even those that didn't officially win, won. ACTS made sure that each of the kids walked out with at least one candy bar to sweeten the night.

ACTS was especially honored to have special guests for our Candy Bar Bingo night. We were honored to have Alden Bagpipe Society members Joshua Estrada and Herbert Schmidt perform throughout the evening. We were also visited by a giant leprechaun - don't worry, we made sure he didn't steal any candy or golden coins that decorated the tables.

Thank you to everyone who came out to Candy Bar Bingo. It was great to see familiar faces as well as those new to ACTS. We hope you all visit us again at another event or one of the upcoming performances.
